I. NASH NEWS – *as reported by Andy Hamm

Forensics had an outstanding competition on January 10 at Pine Richland High School. They faced 12 other schools and dominated the competition! While the team was at Pine Richland, Stacey Chen was in Nashville, Tennessee competing against the top 16 extemporaneous speakers in the country! Our very own Stacey Chen came in 3rd place in the entire United States! Congratulations to Speech and Debate! Their next competitions will be at Mercer, Mt. Lebanon, and Peters Township. Good luck!

Future Business Leaders of America members participated in the regional leadership competition on January 7. Congratulations to all the members of this organization! Out of the 71 North Allegheny competitors, 61 placed in the top 10 of their competition, 8 were first place winners, and 33 people qualified for the state conference in March. North Allegheny did extremely well at the conference! Good luck at the State Conference!

Key Club is sponsoring a soup dinner called Empty Bowls to benefit World Vision. This will be held on Thursday, January 22 in the NASH Cafeteria from 6:00-8:30 pm. The organization is inviting all students and staff at North Allegheny as well as the residents in the District. Please come and support NASH Key Club and have a fantastic soup dinner on the 22nd.

PASC District #3 Conference has finalized the schedule for the day of the conference and the entertainment for both general sessions. We are excited to have the North Allegheny Color Guard, NASH's Break Dancers, and NA Jazz Band I performing at the conference. On January 8 from 5:30-8:30 pm, Workshop Selection Night occurred at NASH. This is where all of the students that submitted a workshop application presented a brief overview of their workshop and received feedback from our steering committee. The night went very well and had a positive effect on the workshops! Registration began in the beginning of January and ends January 26. Publicity is working on our next video that was uploaded onto our website on January 16. Check out our conference website at <http://jointhecrew.weebly.com>. We are heading out to the community and local businesses for donations to sponsor our keynote speaker, Mark Scharenbroich. Thank you to all of the community members who have supported our conference!

ROTC is very busy this month. From January 23-28, the organization will be taking a field trip to the Kennedy Space Center, Patrick Air Force base, and the Disney Y.E.S. Program. On January 21, NA JROTC will be heading to the second round of the academic competition. They will be participating in a volleyball tournament at McDowell High School on January 31 and then hosting another tournament on February 18 at the Intermediate. Good luck to the ROTC!

Senior Class Officers are designing the class of 2009's t-shirt. They will be going on sale in the month of February.

Student Council's School Spirit Committee has organized the data match survey. In mid-January, students who were interested filled out a questionnaire, and, close to Valentine's Day, will be receiving their results which include their most and least compatible matches and also their best friend matches. We are applying to be an NASC Council of Excellence. The Morp Dance will be on February 21 and the theme will be an island/cruise ship theme. The council just completed the Metz Food Pyramid Food Drive organized by the School Spirit Committee and the Metz Cafeteria Staff at NASH! As a school, we collected 715 cans for the North Hills Community Outreach of Allison Park. Also, a large Food Pyramid was designed and is still standing in the cafeteria!

Students Against Destructive Decisions will be attending a training program on January 30 from Tobacco Free Allegheny. They are preparing for presentations they will be making to elementary school students in the spring. Members are working with NATV to complete new "in-house" Conflict Resolution videos for NASD 7th and 8th graders. These videos, combined with a 6th grade video produced two years ago, will be shown at all three middle schools for years to come! Special thanks to all involved, especially Mr. West, Rebecca Carroll, Carmel Rabin, Jessica Pegher, Maria Shevchik, Kara Reffitt, Doug Healy, Dan Bradley, Ian Hall, Dani Perdue, Erica Austin, Samantha Orons, Jordan Wall, and AJ Colosimo for all of their efforts. In addition, SADD is offering a new committee, the Young Women's Empowerment Committee. This committee will be focusing on important issues facing young women today, including dating violence, sexual harassment, unfair business practices related to gender, and more.

II. NAI NEWS – as reported by Lili Peng

Student Council had their winter dance in December, which was highly successful. Many students braved the snow on the Friday night to come to the dance, and we had over 200 students attend. Student Council is now busy at work planning the Dance-A-Thon and the NAIdol.

Forensics has had a recent tournament at Pine-Richland High School. The team won 1st overall in debate sweeps and 1st in overall sweeps. Good job to the Forensics team! They will be hosting a Pittsburgh District Tournament at NASH this Saturday, January 17th.

Key Club was active in different community events over the winter break which included helping out at the Baierl YMCA when Santa came. They are now at work helping with different school projects, and they will be having an outing next Saturday.

NJHS has started their Lunch Bunch program and are continuing to help tutor students after school.

JCL has been holding a board meeting every 1st Tuesday of the month, and general membership meetings are the 3rd Tuesday of every month. JCL is also busy at work planning the PAJCL convention and they raised money for the Santa Stocking project as well. In addition, members of JCL have the opportunity to go on an outing to the Pittsburgh Public Theater to see Metamorphoses. The next general membership meeting will be on January 20th in the cafeteria.

French Club has been having meetings on every other Tuesday of the month. The French students will also be preparing for the National French Exam in March.

Congratulations to the NA Marching Band for performing at the Presidential Inaugural Parade!!!
