

Bring Your Parent to School Day

October is the Month of the Young Adolescent, an annual national collaborative effort of education, health, and youth-oriented organizations initiated by the Association for Middle Level Education (AMLE). At Marshall Middle School we would like to bring attention to the unique characteristics and needs of young adolescents. We also want to reinforce the importance of parents being knowledgeable and actively involved in their children's lives by inviting you to shadow your son or daughter for part of the school day.

When: Friday, October 21, 2011 8:00 – 1:00

Where: Marshall Middle School

What: Bring Your Parent to School Day (BYPSD)

If you would like to visit MMS on Friday, October 21, 2011, please complete the following RSVP and have your child return it to the homeroom teacher by Monday, October 17, 2011. Space is limited. We will send you additional information when we confirm your reservation.
