proudly presents . . .

based on the book by Victor Hugo
written by Craig W. Stump

The Hunchback of Notre Dame is the story of Quasimodo, the gentle but deformed bell-ringer of the Cathedral of Notre Dame in Paris and of La Esmeralda, the gypsy with a kind and generous heart. The story takes place in fifteenth century France, a time not kind to neither the gypsies nor the deformed. When Quasimodo is encouraged to attend the annual Festival of Fools, he sees La Esmeralda dance and falls in love with her. But when Quasimodo is crowned the king of the ugly fools, he and Esmeralda find themselves in trouble with Quasimodo's caretaker, Archdeacon Frollo who has also fallen in love with La Esmeralda. The story continues as Frollo's jealousy escalates, and Quasimodo and La Esmeralda become friends.
