DANIEL RODGERS

Dear Daniel,
The time has gone by too quickly. I remember you were always my lunch buddy and dad's assistant coach. You have such a bright future ahead of you no matter what career path you choose, because "you are you." In our family, success is measured by the wonderful adult you become. You are already successful. For dad and me, you are our baby, the link with our past, the one we held onto so tightly. When your hairline recedes and your children tower over you, you will still be our baby. Now, we send you off with God's grace and all our love. Know that we will always be here for you. Keep your Faith and Keep Smiling.
Love, Mom and Dad
