Kindergarten FAQs

Registration Questions

- Does our child have to be present for the registration appointment? No.
- During in person registration, will someone be available to talk about specific special education questions? Not about questions that might be specific to your child. If you have questions that you would like answered prior to registration, please contact Cindy McKenzie, Coordinator of Gifted & Special Education at cmckenzie@northallegheny.org. There will also be a virtual information session hosted by the AIU on February 10, 2025. Parents should receive a pamphlet about this session from their child's preschool teacher. The AIU staff will share a link with parents directly.
- Will students participate in a screening assessment prior to the first day of kindergarten? Yes, students will participate in screening in April and May. More communication will be communicated by each school building soon.
- If we register now, but we find our child is not ready before the school year starts, how can we withdraw the student before school starts? Please email our Central Registration Office at registration@northallegheny.org.
- Does registration need to be completed before we can schedule a virtual or in-person meeting? Yes.
- What is the pre-approval process for registration? Go to the online registration at www.northallegheny.org and begin the process. You will be informed of what to complete before you are considered pre-approved and can set a virtual or in person registration meeting.
- Does the lottery system adjust for students who have enrollment in programs (like K-Wrap through the YMCA)? No. However, you will be notified of your assigned kindergarten session before the end of the 2024-2025 school year.
- Does AM or PM tend to be more preferred by families? Historically, AM is preferred. However, the PM session has been more preferred in recent years.
