What Are Keystone Exams?

Keystone Exams are end-of-course assessments designed to assess proficiency in the subject areas of Algebra I, Literature, and Biology. You can read more about the exams here.

Who Will Take Keystone Exams?

As we get closer to the testing dates, all students and parents/guardians will receive information, including:

- which test(s) they are taking (Algebra I, Literature, and/or Biology)
- the location of the test
- the name of their proctor

What's New?

NASD piloted online testing during the Winter 2022 Keystone Exam window with great success. Students reported an overall positive experience, and the technology worked exceptionally well. We will continue with online testing during the Spring 2023 Keystone Exam window. Students will receive the proper preparation in the weeks leading up to testing to familiarize themselves with the online testing application, tools, and format.

What Are the Test Dates?

- Wednesday, May 17 - Algebra I (Module 1)
- Thursday, May 18 - Algebra I (Module 2)
- Friday, May 19 - Algebra I (Make-Up)
- Monday, May 22 - Biology (Module 1)
- Tuesday, May 23 - Biology (Module 2)
- Wednesday, May 24 - Literature (Module 1)

Winter Keystone Retake Exam Results

We have just received and are processing the Winter Keystone Exam results. The full results will not be available to parents/guardians for a few more weeks. If you would like to receive the raw score to know if your student passed a Keystone Exam in December 2022, please email Assistant Principal John Morey at jmorey@northalleggheny.org. We are aware that students who participated in the winter Keystone Retake Exams have not yet received results. Those results will be emailed as soon as the District receives them.
