Read this if senior pictures are important to you.

Dear Class of 2023
seniors and parents,

With your senior year fast approaching, it's time to plan for your senior portraits. If the idea of a really fun photo session, lots of image choices, great-looking affordable portraits appeals to you, there's only one place to go:

Madia Photography of Gibsonia! In fact, nowhere else can you get the variety of photographic styles, expressions and selection options than you will find at Madia's.

It all starts with fun.

We know how to make you feel and look your very best. Our combined craftsmanship and people skills put you at ease so you enjoy your session. When you have fun, you hardly even know you're being photographed. When you feel good, you look great!

Your portraits won't look like everyone else's.

When you come for your session, we will spend time with you to find out the kind of photographs you like (and also the kind of photos your parents like...their opinion counts too).

With literally hundreds of backgrounds, the studio selections are unmatched. Add to that outdoor portraits in our beautiful studio park, location photography, digital creativity, black and white images and personalization with your hobbies, sports gear, vehicles, or even your friends. Regardless of what you choose, you are guaranteed to get a selection of images that project the true individual that you are!

Portraits should express your personality. Madia portraits don't just show what you look like – they make a statement about you!

A hassle-free experience.

From the time you make your appointment until you pick up your finished portraits...you will enjoy your entire senior photography experience. When you call you'll get a color brochure on how to look your best in your portraits. You'll know how to find us, where to park, what to bring, everything. We've thought of it all, so you don't have to.

We'll call you the day before your session to see if you have any last minute questions. When you come for your portrait appointment, you'll never be hurried or feel rushed. We recommend you bring a parent or friend with you in the camera room, so they can make sure you look perfect.

When you order your photographs, you'll always get what you want, with no pressure of any kind. At every step you and your parents will be treated with the courtesy and respect you deserve as a Madia Photography client.

Prices to fit every budget.

All this extra help and preparation could cost an arm and a leg elsewhere, but not at Madia Photography. You can choose from a wide variety of portrait packages beginning at just $79.99. Plus you can take up to three months to pay, interest-free. So you'll be able to get exactly the photographs you need, with the price and payment terms to fit your lifestyle and budget.

When you compare image quality, selection variety, service and affordability, the choice for your senior portraits is clear: Madia Photography!
