humanity

- POS: noun
- definition: the quality of compassion or consideration for others; the human race 17-year-old Meghan Vogel was in last place in the 3,200-meter run when she caught up to competitor Arden McMath, whose body was giving out. Instead of running past her to avoid the last-place finish, Vogel put McMath’s arm around her shoulders, carried her 30 meters, and then helped her over the finish line before crossing it herself.
